

The Return and Reintegration Assistance Program (RRAP)

Information Leaflet

WHAT ASSISTANCE CAN BE PROVIDED?

Pre-Departure Information:

- Returning individuals whilst in Australia can contact IRARA to discuss reintegration options.

Cash Assistance:

- Cash payments into a bank account
- Dependent children can be supported
- If approved, cash will be paid after you have returned to your country of origin

In-Kind Assistance:

If approved, potential in-kind assistance can be provided for:

- Rehabilitation services
- Accommodation support
- Short technical/vocational training or language courses
- Assistance in creating linkages to employment opportunities
- Health services, including in-patient treatment or ad hoc medical appointments.
- Other services may be considered so discuss these with the IRARA team

Who Can Get Support?

If you are an eligible non-citizen returning to your country of origin from Australia or Nauru voluntarily, IRARA can help you.

How to access support

If you are currently in Australia or Nauru, contact IRARA by WhatsApp, email, phone or via our website and we will assist you to access this support. You must commence the RRAP process before you leave Australia but you can still contact IRARA using the same details from your country of origin to progress your referral or discuss your plan.

About IRARA

IRARA provides sustainable reintegration services across 30+ countries, supporting returnees with financial assistance, in-kind support, and tailored guidance. With a network of local counsellors and partners, we've helped over 10,000 individuals transition back to their countries of origin.

Through the Return and Reintegration Assistance Program (RRAP), we offer personalised advice and practical support to ensure a smooth and secure return. Understanding the challenges of reintegration, we leverage local expertise to address individual needs, empowering returnees to rebuild their lives with dignity and long-term stability.
